

In just a few years Jase Thirlwall has made a firm footprint on the global trance scene, after exploding onto dance floors with his diverse and energetic production sounds that have seen him become a favourite for leading labels like Armada, Kearnage, Outburst and Mental Asylum.

His big breakthrough moment came in 2013 when his 'Freaked' single stormed charts and playlists, with most notable support coming from Armin van Buuren who featured it on his legendary 'Universal Religion' compilation. Further big tracks in the following years included 'Thunderflash', 'Airborne', 'Sicko', 'Standby' and 'Glow', each garnering far reaching radio and playlist support for from a who's who list of the trance world's finest tastemakers.

Fast forward a few years and Jase has an official remix of Armin van Buuren 'Strong Ones' on Armada, followed by underground smash hit 'Tranceformer' [Outburst] and his awesome uplifting vocal track 'I'll Still Have You' [WAO138?!] which featured the angelic vocals of Victoria Shersick. Arguably his finest moment of 2016 came from his monstrous collaboration with Will Atkinson 'Squelcher' [Kearnage] - which shot up the Beatport Top 100 trance charts to take the #2 position as well as receiving a great deal of playlist support from Bryan Kearney, John O'Callaghan, Snjeider, Simon Patterson and more as well as plenty of radio support on BBC Radio 1.

His continued musical success continued across the last few years with monstrous hits such as "Dust" a vocal number with vocalist "Victoriya" going straight to the top of the charts as did hits such as Slap and Chickens, collaborations with fellow Scots "Will Atkinson" and "Stephen Kirkwood".

As Jase expands his catalogue of hits, demand continues to grow for his captivating DJ sets. As a performer Jase doesn't hold back; fans have come to expect unrelenting energy, emotion and the occasional surprise from him behind the decks. His versatility and broad range of underground sounds enables him to deliver cooler tech edged sets through to driving uplifting trance for peak time or end of night euphoria. Three years running now Jase has placed in the Trancepodium Top 100 DJ's, at 93 and 86 previously and in 2019 he rose to 48 and he shows no sign of stopping!

To date he's performed alongside A list DJs including Tiësto, Armin van Buuren, Paul van Dyk, Mauro Picotto and Eddie Halliwell. Jase has played leading UK festivals and events such as Coloursfest, EH1, Trance Sanctuary and Goodgrief Trance Cruise Weekender as well as a packed calendar of club appearances. Internationally, Jase has torn up the dance floors of Ibiza, Ireland, Netherlands, Italy and Poland as well as taking on tours of Asia, Australia and South America with notable appearances at EDC Las Vegas, Dreamstate and many more..
